Report

The Speakers' club of St. Thomas College, Ranni came into being in the year 2017. It aims at providing a conducive environment where the students can improve their public speaking skills in a friendly and supportive environment of learning-by-doing. Videos that enhance the listening and pronunciation skills of students are screened and a discussion on the same is held to make students hone their language skills. During this academic year, the members of the club watched the first few episodes of Mind Your Language series, a British sitcom that premiered on ITV in 1977.
