DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

REPORT ON FIELD VISIT

13.11.2021

Every year the Department of Botany conducts hands-on training on Mushroom cultivation as part of extension activity and certificate course. This year, we arranged a field trip to the training institute to know more about Mushroom cultivation and spawn production. On 13th November 2022, 54 students of Botany (1st and 2nd years) visited the Mushroom Research and Development Organization at Chengannur. Dr. Devi Priya M. (HoD, Department of Botany) and Mr. Sunil Abraham (Herbarium Keeper) accompanied the students. Dr. Binu N Das, CEO, of gave hands-on training on spawn production to the participants. The programme started at 10.00 am. When training was over, along with him, we visited various mushroom cultivation units functioning as small-scale industry. Free distribution of spawns and other items needed for mushroom cultivation, was given to those who did registration earlier. At 4.00 pm we returned.
